

Lacee Miller Memorial Nursing/Certified Nursing Aide Scholarship

Lacee Miller was a former Helena College nursing student who courageously battled cystic fibrosis. Although Lacee faced many challenges during her life she lived life to the fullest and faced all of life's challenges with bravery. In honor of Lacee, her family has generously created the Lacee Miller Memorial Nursing Scholarship.

The Lacee Miller Scholarship is open to all current, second semester nursing students at the Helena College and students/community members interested in becoming a certified nursing aide. For CNA students this scholarship will be applied toward tuition and equipment for the Continuing Education Program. Two $500 scholarships will be awarded for the fall 2024 semester. Please return this application to the Financial Aid Office by April 19th, 2024.
