Max Credit Review to Extend Federal Financial Aid Eligibility

Name: _____ HC ID #: 770-_____

Address: _____ Phone #: _____

This is used to determine whether a student will continue to be eligible for federal financial aid as detailed on page 3 of the SAP policy.

The degree plan created below should be done in conjunction with the student’s advisor and must detail the minimum coursework required for completion of their degree in the fewest course attempts.

Special notes:

- Students can only receive aid for courses required for their program, which in most cases would include a concentration but not include a minor.
- Students who are enrolled in dual degrees or dual majors must complete the requirements for one of the degrees in the required timeframe.
- Students who submit a degree plan and have their eligibility reinstated are expected to adhere to the stated program. If the student does not pass all the classes or does not complete with in the detailed timeline because they take additional courses not in the plan they may have to resubmit a revised plan and may not receive approval under the revised plan.
- If a student only has one remaining course that is less than six credits they will not be eligible for student loans for the semester so students should plan accordingly.
- There are limits to the number of terms a student can receive a Federal Pell Grant and to the amount that a student can borrow through the Federal Stafford Loan program. If overall federal aid eligibility is reinstated it does not supersede the limits associated with these individual programs.

Step 1: List remaining courses needed to fulfill major requirements
