Microbiology Adjunct

Helena College University of Montana, a comprehensive two-year College focused on student success, seeks qualified applicants to adjunct in our Biology Department. Specifically to teach a Microbiology Lecture and Lab. This course will survey both general and medical microbiology. It will emphasize medical microbiology and place it in perspective with the whole of human health. Bacterial, fungal, and viral agents of disease will be studied and methods for their identification and control. This lab component is designed to reinforce the material covered in BIOM250 by providing students with a practical hands-on opportunity to execute and observe supplemental exercises in a lab setting.

Provide instruction and monitor teaching/learning effectiveness in courses assigned by the Division Chair and/or Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and in which the instructor has appropriate qualifications. Use up-to-date discipline and pedagogical skills to ensure active participation and learning by students.

Minimum requirement is a Master's in Microbiology or Biology.

This position is paid $600/per credit hour.
